

Matron

Gillian Reed – After 14 years at Penrose High School working with ‘at risk’ students both in the classroom and pastorally, I began working at Kings College as Matron of School House in 2008. Both my children have been educated at the College (Middlemore and Greenbank Houses) so I looked forward to this opportunity.