

St John's House Tutor – Paul Stanton

Name: Paul Stanton

Year Joined the College: 2003

Year Joined St. John's House: 2005

Background: Comes from Hospitality background. Completed his chef training in Auckland, moved to Melbourne for 6 years where he worked in fine dining restaurants. Moved back to Auckland where he worked at Government House and eventually moved into Management running the Catering Department at AUT in Pt Chevalier.

His previous job before joining King's College was employed as Operations Manager running 10 Bars and Restaurants around New Zealand. Has been the Catering Manager at King's College since 2003.

Favourite Music: all music across the board, including Bruce Springsteen, AC/DC, Kings of Leon, Rage against the machine, etc.

Car: Ford Mustang

Favourite Meal: The good old Sunday Roast, or Fine Dining

Favourite Film: Star Wars or a good horror

Last Book Read: Steve Price – Be your Best

Funniest Moment at King's College: Too many to mention, mainly in the boarding House, also taking the dive trip to Australia last year with Max Platt and some students; a lot of laughs was had by all.